

DPT 840 : Critical Inquiry III: Research Project

Continuation of Critical Inquiry with emphasis is on the research process, including the identification of a research problem, development of a refined research question and formulation a research proposal. Students will submit an IRB application, and collect data upon approval.

Credits 2.0